OVERVIEW

- Student Conduct Code has not been revised since 2012
- Revised Code will be presented to the Board of Trustees on June 6, 2018
- The revised Code has been posted for comment to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution website: conduct.fiu.edu
 - A detailed summary of the changes has been posted on this website
 - Comments can be sent to the following email: codecomments@fiu.edu
 - Comments are requested by no later than March 31, 2018

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MAJOR CHANGES

- Zero Tolerance for misconduct that jeopardizes the health, safety and welfare of the University community
- The ability for the President or Vice President for Student Affairs to modify the Student Conduct process under certain circumstances
- Revisions to the Title IX/VAWA (i.e., sexual misconduct, stalking, dating and domestic violence) sections of the revised Code, including:
 - Creating one section for all Title IX/VAWA provisions
 - Added more detail about Title IX investigations

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MAJOR CHANGES

- Includes more examples of what constitutes hazing based on the grand jury reports from FSU and Penn State
- Adds language to make it clear that a Student Organization can be charged when a student or students act together to impede an investigation
- Adds language in the Group Responsibility Section to make it clear when the Student Organization is responsible for the actions of its members

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- How can alumni re-commit themselves to FIU values in order to strengthen the Greek community?
- What changes – policy or structural – would you like the university to implement that would help strengthen the Greek community and help us reach a culture shift?
- What additional resources and/or support services would you like the Greek community (collegians, advisors, or alumni) to receive?
