• Chapter/colony Presidents or appointed delegates will attend monthly Presidents’ Roundtable meetings to discuss the issues affecting or involving the community.

• Respective executive board officers will attend designated Roundtable meetings hosted by their respective Council leadership to ensure proper communication, program planning and protocol training.

• Each chapter/colony will send their new members to their respective Council “University” (IFC U/ PC U, etc.) training.

NEW MEMBER RECRUITMENT/INTAKE

• Each chapter/colony will establish a minimum GPA for potential new members seeking to participate in recruitment and initiation. The minimum GPA must not be lower than the minimum set forth in the FSL policies.

• Each chapter/colony will submit a Notification of Conducting/Abstaining from Intake form to FSL by the deadline set by the Council advisor.

• Each chapter/colony should register planned recruitment events on PantherConnect according to the guidelines set forth in the recruitment packets for each chapter/colony prior to the event.

• Each chapter/colony will submit signed Prospective Membership Forms to FSL within the deadlines set by the Council advisor.

• Each chapter/colony will abide by the intake/recruitment rules set forth by the University, their respective council, national policies, and FIPG.

• Each chapter/colony is absolutely prohibited from providing, offering, or selling alcohol at recruitment activities.

• All new member presentations must be registered as a social event on PantherConnect at least two weeks prior to the show.
  o New member presentations will be scheduled prior to the beginning of Finals Week each semester.

NEW MEMBER EDUCATION

• Each chapter/colony will establish a maximum process time for new member education. A chapter/colony without a time limit must not exceed the eight-week time limit set forth by the university.

• Each chapter/colony must abide by the new member education time limits set by their inter/national organization. If this new member education time limit exceeds eight weeks, each chapter/colony should work with their nationals to stay within an eight-week program.

• Each chapter/colony will submit a copy of their new member education plan at minimum one week before the program begins.

• Each chapter/colony will educate new members regarding this Community Standards Agreement.

• Each chapter/colony will educate new members on general information for all the members of the FIU Greek Community, which includes the Interfraternity Council, Multicultural Greek Council, National Pan-Hellenic Council, and the Panhellenic Council.

• Each chapter/colony will educate their new members on the member expectations set forth in their respective Council’s constitution, if any.

• Interest Groups of potential new members for any chapter/colony are not recognized by FIU, unless they have been approved by FSL during a chapter/colony’s expansion/extension process.
NONDISCRIMINATION/HAZING
• Each chapter/colony will abide by the University policy on hazing.
• No chapter/colony will haze any member of the fraternity and sorority community, regardless of active, new, or potential status.
• Each chapter/colony will foster an environment for learning and protect the safety, rights, and dignity of every new and current member.
• Each chapter/colony should promote inclusivity within its membership and across the Greek community at FIU.

CONDUCT/JUDICIAL
• Each chapter/colony will abide by its Inter/National Organization’s policy on alcohol and drug use.
• Each chapter/colony will follow Federal, State and County, and City laws on alcohol and drug consumption.
• Each chapter/colony will follow FIU Student Code of Conduct as it applies to student organizations.
• Office for Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution will partner with inter/national headquarters, as appropriate, when dealing with organizational conduct cases.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS
• Each chapter/colony will sponsor at least one alumni/ae program each year.
• Each chapter/colony will recognize that every action by an individual member of the fraternity and sorority community, whether it be verbal or non-verbal, deliberate or unintentional, shapes the external perception of FIU and the national fraternity and sorority community.
• Each chapter/colony will seek opportunities to strengthen partnerships across campus and the community.
• Each chapter/colony will establish and maintain trusting relationships with all constituents, including, but not limited to: members, prospective members, parents, alumni, volunteers, other members of the Greek Community, chapter/colony house directors, university faculty, staff and administrators, local and campus community, and vendors.
• Each chapter/colony will encourage members to experience and exercise citizenship.
• Each chapter/colony will identify and communicate community needs that may be served by sororities and fraternities.
• Each chapter/colony should establish a communication protocol to address peer-to-peer issues to ensure civil and positive communal discourse.
  o Peer-to-peer communication protocol can include:
    ▪ An initial peer-to-peer conversation should be scheduled to resolve the issue. If this conversation does not yield positive results, then,
    ▪ A peer-to-peer mediated conversation with an executive officer of each organization. If this does not yield positive results, then,
    ▪ A peer-to-peer mediated conversation with an alumni or faculty/staff advisor of each organization, if this does not yield positive results, then,
    ▪ As a last resource, a peer-to-peer mediated conversation with an FSL staff advisor should be scheduled.
  o In the cases that involve high-risk behavior, a meeting must be scheduled with the FSL staff advisor, immediately, forgoing aforementioned protocol.
• Each chapter/colony will participate and partner with other members of the Greek Community on an event outside of their usual Council partners at least once a year.
• Each chapter/colony and their members are to treat all members of the Greek community with human dignity.
  o Chapter/colony members should not:
- Host events that degrade, mock, or trivialize race, culture, ethnic/religious/political group, etc.
- Support means of communications that may cause pain or suffering (physical or emotional) to internal or external members that group.

- Each chapter/colony will have policies that outline behavioral expectations of their chapter/colony and respective members on social media platforms and should hold their members accountable for those who violate those expectations.

MISCELLANEOUS

- Each chapter/colony is responsible for awareness of and adherence to university policies that govern student organizations.
- Each Chapter/colony should expect to be held accountable if their actions do not live up to the values and standards set forth for student organizations at FIU.
- Each chapter/colony not governed by national trade or governing that exist at FIU shall continue to exist unless disciplinary action removes them from campus. Once removed grandfathered reinstatement will depend on Council vote.
- Each chapter/colony that is not governed by an inter/national organization will not be allowed to operate on campus.
- If a chapter/colony is found not adhering to this agreement, FSL can implement non-conduct sanctions for their chapter/colony and may revoke student organization privileges until the chapter/colony fulfills this agreement.
- Each chapter/colony will submit a copy of liability insurance coverage annually in the spring end of year report.

Expectations for all FIU Fraternity and Sorority Alumni/ae

The following expectations are required of our alumni/ae that are part of or have been a part of a recognized fraternity and/or sorority chapter/colony at FIU (regardless of the chapter/colony’s current on campus status):

- Alumni/ae are expected to:
  - Serve as mentors and guides to current undergraduate members of the Greek community, within and outside of their respective chapter/colony.
  - Provide professional development and life opportunities.
  - Behave accordingly to not endanger or jeopardize the current undergraduate chapter/colony’s standing. All inappropriate behavior by alums directly influences and reflects on the undergraduate chapter/colony.
  - Engage the parents of current undergraduate members.
  - Be active in their respective alumni boards and/or council alumni boards, if applicable.
  - Connect chapter/colony with non-FIU Alumni in the area to ensure maximum networking potential for undergraduates.
