TO THE POLL

LET YOUR ROAR BE HEARD!

Roar to the Poll

FIU's Roar to the Poll series serves to increase civic engagement amongst the FIU community consequently to create a widespread movement. This series will consist of three days that will cover topics ranging from voter literacy, voter myth busters, and a celebration on voter appreciation day. Our goal is to make students aware of the fact that their vote is their voice and that it is necessary to let that voice be heard.

We hope to see you at one of the Roar to the Poll events listed below:

- August 31, 2016 @ GC 243
- September 12, 2016 @ Kissing Bridge
- September 27, 2016 @ GC Pit

At each event there will be Miami - Dade, Broward and Monroe County Elections representatives helping students register to vote. Come out to register and learn the facts about voting!

Get Involved

Voting is just one of the many ways that you can get involved in an election. If you cannot vote, do not let that prevent your voice from being heard. You are represented at the county, city, state and federal level. Therefore, if you are passionate about an issue, contact elected officials to urge them to support the issues you care about, sign petitions, or work with non-profits.

Get Paid

Miami - Dade County Elections is looking for students that are registered voters to serve as a poll worker for the August and November elections (Pay rate: $14.49 - $16.29 per hour).
