STANDARDS OF STUDENT CONDUCT

(1) Student Code of Standards
A University is a learning community following a tradition more than 1,000 years old. Florida International University (the University) is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas, and community service.

The University Student Code of Standards and the Statement of Philosophy were developed to embody the values that we hope our students, faculty, staff, administration and alumni will demonstrate. At the same time, the University is strongly committed to freedom of expression. Consequently, the Student Code of Standards and the Statement of Philosophy do not constitute University policy and are not intended to interfere in any way with an individual’s academic or personal freedoms. We hope, however, that individuals will respect these common principles thereby contributing to the traditions and scholarly heritage left by those who preceded them making Florida International University a better place for those who follow.

As a member of the University community, we would hope that you would:

- Respect the tradition of academic inquiry, the University’s rules of conduct, and its mission.
- Respect the opinions and differences of all members of the FIU community.
- Practice civility and demonstrate conduct that reflects the values of the institution.
- Respect the rights and property of the University and its members.
- Be diligent and honest in your personal and academic endeavors.

(2) STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Statement of Philosophy
As an academic community, Florida International University fosters the intellectual exchange of ideas, knowledge, and experience. It is the responsibility of the University to provide a stimulating environment in which scholarship and personal growth may occur. The desired effect is that Students will take advantage of this environment to develop intellectually as well as participate as responsible, contributing citizens of our community. Being a contributing Student also comes with responsibility to adhere to the Student Code of Conduct. The ultimate responsibility for knowing University requirements and regulations rests with the Student, regardless of institutional or program affiliation. Those charged with and found responsible for violations of the Student Code of Conduct will be subject to appropriate action as outlined herein. For the most current of Student Code of Conduct, please refer to the website of the Office of Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution (SCCR) at conduct.fiu.edu.

The safety and well-being of our community is the University’s foremost concern. Florida International University has zero tolerance for acts that compromise the safety and well-being of members of the University community. Members of the FIU community, guests, and visitors have the right to be free from any form of sexual discrimination, harassment and misconduct. It is the policy of the University that acts of harassment and violence will not be tolerated. Any act of intimidation, threat of violence, or act of violence committed against other members of the University when committed within the jurisdiction of the Student Code of Conduct is prohibited. Any Student or Student Organization found responsible for a violation of this standard may be subject to discipline up to and including expulsion pursuant to the Student Code of Conduct. Student Code of Conduct violations, such as those in the following list, may lead to suspension or dismissal from the University once the determination of responsibility has been made: arson, creating or false reporting of bombs, illegal drug and/or alcohol distribution, possession or discharge of illegal weapons, rape or sexual misconduct, stalking, Intimate Partner Violence, hate crimes, hazing, and physical assault.

This revised Code is effective the first day of classes for 2018 Summer B (i.e., June 18, 2018).

DEFINITIONS Statement of Rights and Freedom

Florida International University recognizes the basic rights and freedoms of Students. They are inherent to the educational process and to the intellectual growth of Students. The following rights and freedoms are recognized as basic to the educational process:

Freedom of Expression and Assembly

Students are guaranteed freedom of expression. Students and Student groups may discuss, pass resolutions, write or distribute literature and leaflets, circulate petitions, sponsor speakers and public forums, and take other orderly actions which do not disrupt the essential function of the University and which are consistent with the University’s Regulation 110 Demonstrations and Regulation 114 Commercial Solicitation and Advertising.

Freedom of Association

Students are free to form and join University organizations.

Freedom in the Classroom

Students are responsible for learning the content of courses of study, but have the right to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in the classroom. Students have the right to expect that course descriptions will reflect actual course content, to receive a written syllabus for each course, to be informed of the standards on which evaluation in each course will be based, and to be fairly and justly evaluated based only on performance in the course. Students also have the right to consult with faculty during announced office hours.

Freedom from Improper Disclosure

In accordance with the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and the Florida Student Records statute, Students shall have access to records maintained on them and be protected from improper disclosures to third parties without their consent. Academic and Student Conduct records will be maintained separately. The procedures for access will be explicitly stated.

Freedom from Discrimination

Students shall not be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, creed, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, religion, national origin, or any other legally protected status. Freedom from discrimination includes eligibility to Student Organizations, University activities, academic programs, employment, use of facilities, and housing.

Freedom from Sexual Harassment

Students are entitled to work and study in an atmosphere free from sexual harassment. Harassment constitutes, in the aggregate, the incidents that are sufficiently pervasive or persistent or severe that a reasonable person would be adversely affected to a degree that interferes with his/her ability to participate in or to realize the intended benefits of a University activity, employment, or resources. Sex-based cyber harassment and sexual violence are forms of sexual harassment. Sexual violence is defined as physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or where a person is incapable of giving consent due to the victim’s use of drugs or alcohol or where a victim is unable to give consent due to an intellectual or other disability.

Right to Due Process
Students have the right to due process as appropriate for Student Conduct situations. This includes Written Notice of hearing, information concerning the charges and allegations against them, the opportunity to present information on their own behalf, and written notice of the decision.

Statement of Student Rights and Responsibilities
All Students regardless of institutional or program affiliation are expected to know and adhere to the regulations of the University as well as applicable laws. Those charged with and found responsible for violations of the Student Code of Standards and/or the Student Code of Conduct (see below) will be subject to Student Conduct action as provided for below.

Principles of Group Responsibility
Any Student Organization can be held responsible for its actions or the actions of a collection of its members acting together. It is recognized that occasional misconduct on the part of individual members will not be attributed to and/or be cause to penalize the organization. However, misconduct on the part of the organization may be addressed when one or more of the following circumstances occur:

- Members of the organization act together to violate University Policy.
- A violation arises out of an organization-sponsored, financed, or otherwise supported activity.
- The organization’s leadership has knowledge of the incident, behavior, etc., and fails to take corrective or prohibitive action or fails to stop such incident, behavior, etc., while it is occurring.
- A violation occurs on premises and/or transportation owned, operated, or rented exclusively by the organization.
- A pattern of individual violations has occurred and/or continues to occur without adequate control, response, or sanction on the part of the organization or its leaders.
- The organization or related activities provided the context for the violation.
- The organization chooses to protect from official action one or more individual offenders who are members, former members, or guests of the organization.

It is the responsibility of the Student Organization’s President or designee to represent the organization through the conduct process.

Definitions

2. Business Day: A day when the University is open for regular business operations (excluding legal holidays). For emailed correspondence, the day of delivery is not included in a designated time period.

3. Complainant: Any person who submits a charge alleging that a Student violated the Student Code. When a Student believes that s/he has been a victim of another Student’s misconduct, that Student will have the same rights under this Student Code as are provided to the Complainant, even if another member of the University Community submitted the charge itself.

c. Character Witness Statement: A statement relating to the general character and reputation of the person.

d. Charge: The written statement of the alleged violations of the Student Conduct Code.

e. Charged Student: Any Student who has been formally charged with an alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

g. Consent: A clear, knowing, and voluntary agreement to engage in specific sexual activity at the time of the activity which can be withdrawn at any time. Consent must be ongoing throughout the sexual activity.
   • Consent can be given by words or actions as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable permission regarding willingness to engage in (and the conditions of) sexual activity.
   • Within each sexual encounter, there may be separate sexual acts involved, and consent to one act and/or person(s) by itself does not constitute consent to another act and/or person(s).
   • Consent is active, not passive.
   • Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent has been granted, nor does silence alone mean consent has been granted.
   • The existence of a dating relationship between the persons involved, or the fact of past sexual relations, should never, by itself, be assumed to be an indicator of consent for any current or future sexual encounter.
   • If coercion or force is used, there is no consent.
   • Sexual activity with someone known to be, or should be known to be, incapacitated constitutes a violation of this regulation, as someone who is incapacitated is unable to consent.
     o Incapacitation can occur mentally or physically, from physical or developmental disability, by alcohol or other drug use, or by blackout.
     o The question of what the Charged Student should have known as to whether the Complainant was incapacitated is objectively based on what a reasonable person in the place of the Charged Student, sober and exercising good judgment, would have known about the condition of the Complainant.
     o If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated so that the person cannot understand the fact, nature or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent; this includes but is not limited to conditions due to age, alcohol or drug consumption, unconsciousness, or physical or developmental disability.
   • Whether one has taken advantage of a position of influence over another may be a factor in determining consent.
   • Consent can be withdrawn once given, as long as that withdrawal is clearly communicated.
   • In order to give consent, one must be of legal age.

h. Final Agency Action: The written decision resulting from the Student Conduct process which finally determines the rights or obligations of the Charged Student or Student Organization.

(f) Greek Organization: A social organization recognized by Campus Life/Office of Sorority & Fraternity Life which is affiliated with a regional, national, or international organization. Additionally, each chapter must be recognized by one of the following: the Interfraternity Council (IFC),

3. AUTHORITY

a. The requirements and procedures in the Student Code of Conduct may be revised in order to serve the needs of the University Students, faculty and/or staff where safety and security issues so demand, when special expertise is needed to ensure fairness, or in the circumstances where, in the University’s sole discretion, the requirements and procedures described herein are deemed insufficient to meet the objectives of educating and protecting the members of the University community and/or to respond to changes in the law. The University President, Vice President for Student Affairs, and/or the Florida International University Board of Trustees may make changes in policies, regulations and other requirements.

b. The Board of Trustees of Florida International University has been charged with the responsibility of, and authority for, providing a Student Conduct system. 4. AMNESTY
   The University encourages Students and Student Organizations to seek medical assistance and/or report sexual misconduct, but it recognizes that Students may be hesitant to make a call or report when they:
   a. Need medical assistance due to their own use of alcohol/drugs,
   b. Witness another student who needs medical assistance and they themselves have used alcohol/drugs, and/or
   c. Want to report sexual misconduct but they themselves (or Witnesses they identify) may have used alcohol/drugs.

   Therefore, Students involved in the incident will not be charged with the possession or consumption of alcohol/drugs if they call for assistance for themselves and/or others who have participated in or witnessed the incident and their conduct did not threaten the health or safety of any other individual. Amnesty will be granted only 1 time for a Student. Other charges related to the incident (e.g., alcohol distribution, drug distribution, or other non-alcohol/drug charges) may be determined at the discretion of the SCCR Director. Amnesty is not granted to Student Organizations.

5. PROHIBITED CONDUCT
   The following conduct is prohibited by this Code. It is a violation of this Code for any Student or Student Organization to engage in behavior that aids, attempts, assists, promotes, condones, encourages, requires, conceals, or facilitates any act prohibited by this Code. Allowing, permitting, or providing an opportunity for a guest to violate University policy is also prohibited. These violations are included in each section below and need not be cited separately. Lack of familiarity with University policy is not a defense to a violation of this Code. Additionally, intoxication or impairment from alcohol, drugs, or other substances is not a defense to a violation of this Code.

   The following offenses or any attempt to violate these offenses will be used in charging all Students, or Student Organizations or Greek Organizations. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to abridge the right of any member of the University community of freedom of expression protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and any other applicable law.

   - a. (a) Alcohol
Students who choose to drink will be held fully responsible for their behavior while under the influence of alcohol. Loss of control due to intoxication does not excuse or justify a violation of the state law, University Policy, or the rights of others.

The University does not want to discourage Students from seeking medical assistance. Therefore, Students involved in the event may not be charged with the possession or consumption of alcohol if one of them calls for assistance for themselves or others who have participated or witnessed the event. An offer, gift, receipt, or solicitation of a bribe of money, materials, goods, services or anything of value for the Student or others for the purpose of procuring or providing an advantage to which they are is not otherwise legally entitled.

The University does not want to discourage Students from seeking medical assistance. Therefore, Students involved in the event may not be charged with the possession or use of drugs if one of them calls for assistance for themselves or others who may have participated or witnessed the event.    1. Non-Consensual Sexual Touching – Any intentional touching of a person’s breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, or other intimate parts without Consent. Touching may be over or under clothing and may include the Charged Student touching the Complainant, the Charged Student making the Complainant touch the Charged Student or another person, or the Charged Student making the Complainant touch the Complainant’s own body. This includes touching with any object.

A hostile environment exists when the conduct is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with, limits, or deprives an individual from participating in or benefiting from the University’s educational, employment, and/or campus-residential experience when viewed through both a subjective and objective standard.

(13) COMPLAINANTS’ RIGHTS

(a) These rights apply to the following types of cases:
13. TITLE IX PROCEDURES

The University’s Title IX Coordinator has designated the SCCR Director to serve as Deputy Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Coordinator will ensure that the following procedures are implemented in accordance with Title IX and the Clery Act, as amended by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA). Such procedures relating to alleged Title IX/VAWA violations will be conducted in a reliable, impartial, thorough, prompt, and equitable manner. The Student Code of Conduct procedures will be followed in complaints arising out of an alleged violation of University prohibitions against sexual misconduct (i.e., Intimate Partner Violence, sexual harassment, coercion, assault, and violence), stalking, and gender-based discrimination with the additions or expectations listed below.

Prohibited Conduct: Title IX cases include prohibited conduct listed in Section 5.1 (Intimate Partner Violence), 5.q (Sexual Misconduct), 2. Endangerment, 3. Personal Abuse, and 5.s (Stalking).

b. Pre-Hearing Procedures

1. Investigations: If the SCCR Director determines that an investigation is necessary into the alleged violations, the procedures below will be followed. All fact finding will occur during the investigation stage prior to the hearing. There will be no documents or testimony presented at the hearing.

   i. The SCCR Director will select two (2) trained investigators to gather sufficient evidence to reach a fair, impartial determination as to whether the alleged violation has occurred based on the preponderance of the evidence. The investigators will be trained to gather and document the available evidence to support reliable decisions, objectively evaluate the credibility of the parties and Witnesses, synthesize all available evidence (including both supportive and non-supportive evidence), and take into account the unique and complex circumstances of each case.

   ii. The SCCR Director will select investigators who are free of actual or reasonably perceived conflicts of interest and biases for or against any party. The Charged Student and the Complainant each have the right to challenge the selection of the investigators at least three (3) Business Days after being advised of the investigation and the identities of the investigators. The challenge must be in writing and show actual bias (such as a conflict of interest, animosity, pressure, or influence) that would preclude a fair and impartial investigation. The SCCR Director will determine whether to grant such challenge in his/her discretion, and such decision is final.

2. Pre-Investigation Meeting and Notice of Investigation: The investigators will meet with the Complainant and Charged Student (in separate meetings) to advise each party of the allegations constituting a potential violation of the Student Code of Conduct. To the extent known and to the extent that the knowledge would not impede a fair and impartial investigation and/or harm any of the parties or Witnesses, the investigators will advise each party of the identities of the parties, the specific code sections allegedly violated, the precise conduct allegedly constituting the potential violation, and the date and location of the alleged incident. The investigators will send the parties a written Notice of Investigation via email.

3. Investigative Procedures: During an investigation, the investigators will seek to meet separately with the Complainant, the Charged Student, and any Witnesses. Witnesses are individuals who may have information relevant to the incident, including individuals who may have observed the acts in question, may be able to provide contextual information, or may have other information related to the incident, the disclosure, or related matters.
The investigators will also gather other relevant information or evidence, including documents, photographs, communications between the parties, medical records (subject to the consent of the applicable person), and other electronic records as appropriate. The investigators, not the parties, are responsible for gathering relevant evidence to the extent reasonably possible. Both the Complainant and Charged Student are encouraged to promptly submit any relevant information, including Witnesses. If a party declines to provide relevant information, the University’s ability to conduct a prompt, thorough, and equitable investigation may be impaired.

4. Prior Sexual History. The sexual history of the Complainant or Charged Student will never be used to prove character or reputation. Evidence related to the prior sexual history of the parties is generally not used in determining whether a violation of this Code has occurred and will only be considered under limited circumstances. For example, prior sexual history may be relevant to explain injury, to provide proof of a pattern, or to address another specific issue raised in the investigation. The investigator will determine the relevance of this information and both parties will be informed if evidence of prior or subsequent conduct is deemed relevant.

5. Written Investigation Report: Upon conclusion of the investigation, the investigators will prepare a written report summarizing the relevant information which will include any evidence and list of Witnesses that are supportive or not supportive of a violation. The Charged Student, the Complainant, and any Witnesses will have the opportunity to review the report before it becomes final. Upon notice of the availability of the investigation report, any party will have five (5) Business Days to:
   i. Meet again with the investigator,
   ii. Provide written comment or feedback on the facts as gathered,
   iii. Submit additional information, and/or
   iv. Identify additional Witnesses or request the collection of other information by the investigator. If any party provides a written response or makes a request for additional information, the content will be shared as appropriate and incorporated in the final investigation report. Once the investigation report is final, a copy will be provided to the Charged Student and Complainant at the same time. This report will be used in the Hearing (Section 12).

6. Charge Letter (Section 6): At the time of the issuing the charge letter to the Charged Student, the Complainant will also be notified of the charges and be offered an Information Session.

   c. Due Process Rights of The Complainant:

   (b) Rights

   1. Have the same rights afforded to the Charged Student, Student Organization, or Greek Organization as described above. The Complainant must adhere to the same responsibilities required of the Charged Student, Student Organization, or Greek Organizations as set forth above.

   2. Have unrelated past behavior excluded from the hearing. The Hearing Officer will decide if such information is unrelated. Unless there was a prior relationship between the parties, past relationships of the Charged Student or Complainant will not be considered in the hearing.
3. To be present throughout the entire hearing or any portions thereof. If the Complainant does not want to be present in the same room as the Charged Student, the Hearing Officer will make alternative arrangements, if possible.

4. Testify in limited privacy. In lieu of testifying in person or via telephone, the Complainant may submit a written or recorded statement. The determination of whether the testimony will be given in limited privacy is made at the discretion of the SCCR Director in consultation with the University Victim Advocate.

7. The opportunity to question Witnesses in accordance with the Hearing Procedures.
8. Not to provide self-incriminating testimony. (This right does not apply to Student Organizations.)
10. Appeal the decision via the process established by the University.

In addition to these due process rights, the Complainant has the same responsibilities as those provided by the Student Code of Conduct to the Charged Student. See Section 10.

d. Due Process Rights of the Charged Student: See Section 10.
e. Additional Due Process Rights for Charged Students and Complainants: Both parties have the additional right to submit an Impact Statement for use solely in the sanctioning phase of deliberations if the Charged Student is found responsible for the charge(s).

6. Be notified of the final determination to the extent permitted by law. Be notified of the final determination in cases involving alleged sexual misconduct. If the alleged Complainant is deceased as a result of a crime of violence or non-forcible sex offense, the University will provide the results of the disciplinary hearing to the Complainant’s next of kin, if so requested.

f. A Complainant of sexual misconduct is entitled to a review by the Title IX Coordinator to determine whether the Complainant is also entitled to a remedy under Title IX which is not available under the Student Conduct Code. Hearing Notifications (Section 8): At the time of issuing the hearing notice to the Charged Student, the Complainant will also be notified of the hearing.

g. Hearing Procedures (Section 12):

1. Hearing: The Hearing Body, the Charged Student, and the Complainant will be given the final investigation report at least three (3) Business Days prior to the hearing. During the hearing, the investigators will provide a summary of the final investigation report. The Hearing Body, the Charged Student, and the Complainant may ask questions about the report.

2. Decision Letter: The decision will include outcome, the rationale for the outcome, the sanctions, and the rationale for the sanctions. The SCCR Director will forward the Title IX Coordinator a copy of the decision letter on the same day that the Charged Party and Complainant receive the letter.

1. 1. Violations of the appealing party’s rights or other failure to follow the Student Conduct procedures that substantially affected the outcome of the initial hearing. Appeals based on this reason will be limited solely to a review of the record of the hearing.

2. 2. New information, which was not available at the time of the hearing and could not have been presented. In addition, the appealing party must show that the new information could have substantially affected the outcome.

2. If the Charged Student appeals in any other case, once an appeal is requested, the sanction(s) will be stayed and will not take effect until the appeal process has been completed. If no appeal is requested, the sanctions will take effect immediately. Under these circumstances, a Charged Student shall remain eligible to attend classes and University activities pending the appeal.

3. If a Charged Student’s privileges are temporarily revoked through an Interim Suspension and the Charged Student is subsequently found not responsible for the violation, the University must to the extent possible:
   i. Correct any record of the change in enrollment status in the Charged Student’s permanent records and reports in a manner compliant with state and federal laws; and
   ii. Refund to the Charged Student a pro rata portion of any charges for tuition, and out-of-state fees, as appropriate, relating to the temporary revocation or suspension which affected the Charged Student’s ability to attend classes for more than ten (10) Business Days.

4. If no appeal is requested, the sanctions will take effect immediately.

f. Appellate Review/Decision:
   1. No person may hear or decide an appeal if they conducted or participated in the Student Conduct proceeding being reviewed on appeal.
